SERIES

Despite critical acclaim and major awards, too many great films are never released widely and film fans never get the chance to see them. Film Movement was created to change that.

Film Movement selects award-winning, first run, independent and foreign films from the top festivals - Sundance, Cannes, Toronto, New York, etc. All titles are simultaneously released to movie theatres nationwide and to libraries on DVD.

Each selection is curated by leading voices in film, including Christian Gaines of American Film Institute (AFI), Nicole Guillemet, original programmer of the Sundance Film Festival, and Nate Kohn of Roger Ebert's Overlooked Film Festival.

IVPL subscribes to The Film Movement Series and receives a new award-winning selection each month.
