

Recipients of The PEN/Faulkner Award

---

Indian Valley Public Library
100 E. Church Ave.
Telford, PA 18969
(215) 723-9109

Hours

Monday - Thursday	9 am - 9 pm
Friday & Saturday	10 am - 5 pm
Sunday	1 pm - 5 pm

---

PEN/Faulkner was founded in 1980 by writers to honor their peers, and is now the largest juried award for fiction in the U.S. It is named in honor of William Faulkner, who used his Nobel Prize funds to create an award for young writers.

(from www.betweenthecovers.com)

Unless noted, these books may be found in the Fiction Room, shelved alphabetically by the author's last name.

DNO means "do not own". If you would like to read this book, please see a librarian to request an interlibrary loan.

---

2002: Patchett, Ann. Bel Canto
2001: Roth, Philip. The Human Stain
2000: Jin, Ha. Waiting
1999: Cunningham, Michael. The Hours
1998: Zabor, Rafi. The Bear Comes Home
1997: Berriault, Gina. Women in Their Beds
1996: Ford, Richard. Independence Day
1995: Guterson, David. Snow Falling on Cedars
1994: Roth, Philip. Operation Shylock
1993: Proulx, E. Annie. Postcards
1992: DeLillo, Don. Mao II
1991: Wideman, John Edgar. Philadelphia Fire
1990: Doctorow, E. L. Billy Bathgate
1989: Salter, James. Dusk . . .
1988: Boyle, T. Coraghessan. World's End
1987: Wiley, Richard. Soldiers in Hiding
1986: Taylor, Peter. The Old Forest . . .
1985: Wolff, Tobias. The Barracks Thief

1984: Wideman, John Edgar. Sent for You Yesterday

1983: Olson, Toby. Seaview

1982: Bradley, David. The Chaneyville Incident

1981: Abish, Walter. How German Is It?